Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/17

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 1: Identify Yourself

8. How you will pay the fee  I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
 I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
 I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

For example, do you own perishable goods, or livestock that must be fed, or a building that needs urgent repairs?

 No. Yes.

What is the hazard?

If immediate attention is needed, why is it needed?

Where is the property?

Number, Street, City, State &amp; Zip Code

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

Incapacity.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

Official Form 106C*Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt*1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

Official Form 106E/F

Schedule E/F: Creditors Who Have Unsecured Claims

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. Use Part 1 for creditors with PRIORITY claims and Part 2 for creditors with NONPRIORITY claims. List the other party to any executory contracts or unexpired leases that could result in a claim. Also list executory contracts on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) and on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 106G). Do not include any creditors with partially secured claims that are listed in Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property. If more space is needed, copy the Part you need, fill it out, number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Continuation Page to this page. If you have no information to report in a Part, do not file that Part. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: List All of Your PRIORITY Unsecured Claims

1. Do any creditors have priority unsecured claims against you?

No. Go to Part 2.
 Yes.

2. List all of your priority unsecured claims. If a creditor has more than one priority unsecured claim, list the creditor separately for each claim. For each claim listed, identify what type of claim it is. If a claim has both priority and nonpriority amounts, list that claim here and show both priority and nonpriority amounts. As much as possible, list the claims in alphabetical order according to the creditor's name. If you have more than two priority unsecured claims, fill out the Continuation Page of Part 1. If more than one creditor holds a particular claim, list the other creditors in Part 3.

(For an explanation of each type of claim, see the instructions for this form in the instruction booklet.)

Statement of Intention for Individuals Filing Under Chapter 7

12/15

If you are an individual filing under chapter 7, you must fill out this form if:

- creditors have claims secured by your property, or
- you have leased personal property and the lease has not expired.

You must file this form with the court within 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition or by the date set for the meeting of creditors, whichever is earlier, unless the court extends the time for cause. You must also send copies to the creditors and lessors you list on the form

If two married people are filing together in a joint case, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Both debtors must sign and date the form.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+ $15	trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

---

$1,167	filing fee
+ $550	administrative fee
$1,717 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

$200	filing fee
+ $75	administrative fee
$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

$235	filing fee
+ $75	administrative fee
$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:

http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_form\_s.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:

http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc\_approved.html

Retainer Agreement
(Chapter 7) - Legal Plan

I (We), LISA SHANKLIN, the undersigned, hereinafter referred to as "Client", agree to employ "Hipple Law, P.C. and Springer Brown, LLC", hereinafter referred to as "Attorney", to render legal services in connection with filing a bankruptcy case on my (our) behalf, and hereby empower and authorize Attorney to handle all actions, in their sole discretion, reasonably necessary to bring the matter to a successful conclusion. Client acknowledges that the following advance payment retainer agreement has been fully explained, and Client agrees to pay said fees and costs in consideration of legal services rendered or to be rendered.

Fees and Costs.

Fees. Client agrees to pay Attorney a fee of $ _____ for attorney legal services set forth herein to prepare a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case. ALL LEGAL FEES PAID TO ATTORNEY SHALL BE PAID BY THE DEBTORS LEGAL PLAN. THEREFORE, NONE OF THE FEES SHALL BE PAID FROM THE DEBTORS ESTATE.

Client also agrees that in the event that they decide to file a Chapter 13 case, either by choice or because they are ineligible to file a Chapter 7, then, they will be required to sign an additional Retention Agreement which sets forth the agreement between Debtor and Attorney for a Chapter 13 case, including payment of any additional fees that will be paid to attorney for handling a Chapter 13 case. Client also understands that the paid by Client pursuant to this agreement, shall be applied towards the total attorney fees paid by Client for preparation of their Chapter 13 case, and included in the total amount paid to Attorney in the Court Approved Model Retention Agreement. Client understands that Attorney shall not complete any further work for preparation of a Chapter 13 case, until the Client signs a Retention Agreement with Attorney to handle a Chapter 13 case. Client also understands that they are not obligated to sign the Chapter 13 Retention Agreement, although Attorney may not be able to assist Client further with preparation of a Chapter 13 case, as Federal Bankruptcy Rules require a written agreement between Client and Attorney, and the agreement.

Costs. Client agrees to pay all costs, including but not limited to the filing fee for the bankruptcy, obtaining a current credit report, payment of credit counseling fees (if applicable), court fees for filing all amended schedules, obtaining tax transcripts (if applicable) and any other out-of-pocket costs. Client shall pay an initial retainer of $ 390.00 to attorney for said costs. In the event that there are additional out-of-pocket costs, Client agrees to provide Attorney with advance payment for said costs, prior to any advance of payment of the cost on behalf of Client by Attorney.

Advance Payment Retainer Agreement. This retainer agreement is an advance payment retainer agreement. The funds Client has agreed to pay Attorney shall be deposited in Attorney's General Operating Account and ownership of said funds transfer to Attorney immediately upon payment.

As our client, it is your option to have your money placed into a security retainer. The purpose of an advance payment retainer is to allow Client to retain Attorney to represent him against creditors. Client understands that it is advantageous to treat this retainer as an advance payment retainer in that it protects the funds paid to Attorney from the claims of his creditors. If this retainer were treated as a security retainer said funds would remain the property of Client and therefore subject to the claims of the Client's creditors. The choice of the type of retainer to be used is solely the decision of the Client. If Client desires that said retainer shall be a security retainer, then they shall notify attorney in writing at the time this agreement is signed.

Services Provided. It is understood that the above referenced flat fee is payment for services rendered and services to be performed. The services include: review of financial status; review of various documents related to debts and obligations; counseling as to various types of bankruptcy chapters; effect of bankruptcy on future ability to obtain new credit; effect of reaffirmation, redemption, avoiding liens and surrendering property; specific advice regarding how to avoid bankruptcy and alternatives to bankruptcy; complete drafting of all required bankruptcy documents; revision and redraft of final bankruptcy documents; attending creditors' meeting, and closing the file.

Services Not Provided. Client agrees that additional attorney's fees would be due in the event that any additional representation becomes necessary, including, but not limited to any 2004 examination, any adversary proceedings, objections to discharge, or any other action, hearing or representation that is not specified in the preceding paragraph of this agreement. Client agrees that this retainer agreement and the fee specifically excludes any and all representation of client in relation to or in defense of any adversary proceeding brought subsequently in the bankruptcy filing. Client further understands that Attorney shall not be required to represent client in an adversary proceeding and it shall be solely the decision of Attorney whether to represent client in said adversary proceeding. Said additional representation shall be covered by a separate legal services agreement and will require an additional retainer, which may not be paid by the legal plan.

Decision Not to Proceed or Use Attorney's Services. The Client agrees that should he decide not to file bankruptcy or decide not to continue using Attorney's services, Attorney may charge time against any retainer paid the amount of $425.00 per hour for all services rendered to date, plus actual costs incurred.

Client Responsibilities. Client agrees to cooperate in the preparation of the bankruptcy case, to appear for the creditors' meeting, depositions and court appearances and to comply with all reasonable requests made in preparation of this bankruptcy case. Failure to cooperate may result in Court-imposed sanctions and Attorney's withdrawal from the case.

Client understands that it is the Client's responsibility to provide Attorney with a complete and accurate list of creditors and other information requested by Attorney. The Client further understands that any debts not listed in his bankruptcy schedules may not be discharged. If Client fails to provide Attorney with all information necessary to prepare the necessary documents and said failure necessitates any amendments to the schedules or Statement of Financial Affairs, Client agrees to pay an additional $100.00 for attorney fees, as well as any costs for said amendment.

Client understands that they MUST provide Attorney with a copy of Client's Certificate of Completion of Financial Management Course. If Client fails to ensure that Attorney has received and filed the required Certificate of Completion of Financial Management Course, the Client shall be responsible for payment of the court reopening fee and additional Attorney's fees of $600.00 for filing a motion to reopen the case and file said certificate. Attorney is under no obligation to file any motion to reopen Client's case until the above referenced fees and costs are paid.

Copies of Documents / File Retention. Client understands that he shall receive electronic copies of all documents related to his file. Client should retain those documents as his copy of his file. In the event that Client requires additional copies of the Attorney's file the Client understands that he will be charged for those copies.

Client understands that his or her file shall be kept no more than five years. Should Client require copies of any documents or the return of original documents provided to Attorney he must request those copies in writing before the expiration of that five-year period.

Default. It is agreed that upon the event of any default or breach of any kind under this agreement by Client, Attorney reserves the right to withdraw as counsel of record for Client. It is further agreed that Client shall not have any recourse or claim against Attorney for damages following the withdrawal of Attorney as Client's counsel.

Other Assistance. In some cases it may be necessary to hire an attorney outside Attorney's firm to assist with the case. This attorney will be paid out of the retainer paid to Attorney. Client expressly consents to the hiring of an outside attorney to cover court dates as needed.

Other. The fees charged are in connection with this bankruptcy and for bankruptcy issues only. They do not include resolution of any other matters involving credit information.

This constitutes the entire agreement between the Attorney and Client regarding attorneys' fees and/or services provided in the engagement, the parties agree to resolve any disputes through mediation, followed by arbitration before any suit is filed.

Attorney is a debt relief agency that helps people file for relief under the Bankruptcy Code.

By Client's signature below, Client acknowledges understanding the terms of this agreement and agrees to abide by its provisions. Client has received a copy of this agreement for his records no later than five business days after the first date on which the Attorney provided any bankruptcy assistance services to client.
